About SAC

The Singapore Association for Counselling (SAC) is the professional body representing counsellors, psychotherapists, counselling educators and students in Singapore. SAC has come a long way – pioneered in 1982 by Mr Anthony Yeo from Counselling and Care Centre together with a small group of counsellors.

Between 1996 – 1999, a Paper was developed by the EXCO to propose standards for the Recognition and Licensing of Professional Counsellors in Singapore. This Paper was presented to the then Ministry of Community Development (MCD) in 1999 but was rejected as the counsellor fraternity was considered too small.

In 1999, Constitutional amendments related to training standards for membership were approved by the Registry of Societies and implemented for new membership applications. Subsequently, the new SAC Code of Ethics was accepted at its Extraordinary General Meeting.

In the year 2000, SAC established new guidelines for the accreditation of counsellor training courses in Singapore to ensure clinical practice and supervision components were adequately in place.

SAC Register of Counsellors was established during its 20th Annual General Meeting in March 2003. The first SAC Website was launched. The SAC Constitution was amended for more clarity on its definition of a trained and qualified counsellor with emphasis on the details of training, practicum, and clinical supervision.

SAC partnered the Ministry of Community Development and Sports, and the National Council of Social Services to develop standard counselling courses. The First Joint Committee meeting involved SAC, NCSS, and SSTI. This was followed by MCYS, SASW and the NUS Social Work Department. The first Course Recognition Manual was launched in December 2005.

New Membership Categories were introduced, and the SAC Constitution went through a major review and update in 2013.

SAC became a full member of the National Council of Social Services (NCSS) since April 2015.

In October 2015, SAC Ethics Manual of Procedures was launched by our Guest of Honour, Minister of State for the Ministry of Health, Dr Amy Khor at our inaugural Symposium attended by 500 delegates.

In 2016, SAC's Register of Clinical Supervisors was established during our 34th Annual General Meeting. The new Clinical Supervision Standards and Procedures document was approved.

SAC also established a New Clinical Supervision Components and Standards for New Clinical Supervisor Applicants and was approved at the 35th AGM in 2017 to be in effect from June 2018.

On 03 November 2017, the new SAC Logo, Website, and Member Portal was launched by Mayor Denise Phua at the half-day 35th Anniversary Conference.

At the end of 2018, the EXCO decided to terminate the Secretariat services with the Singapore Professional Centre. From 01 January 2019, SAC started its own Secretariat services at Work Central Offices Pte Ltd with one full time staff, one part-time staff and Genesis Consulting as our financial services provider.

2020 will go down as a significant year as Singapore coped with the Global Covid-19 pandemic, SAC observed several "firsts" - the first time to practice counseling, supervision, training, and meetings online (via Zoom) as well as conducting our first "Virtual AGM" with Elections of a new Executive Committee. 2020 will also go down into history as SAC conferred our first Fellow Member.

President's Message

The 26th Executive Committee of the Singapore Association for Counselling is pleased to present its Annual Report 2020. The year under review was an extraordinary year for everyone. It will go down in history as one marked by the COVID-19 global pandemic. Individuals, businesses, organisations, and governments were heavily impacted in one way or another. Naturally, our Association was not spared.

Events and Activities ceased completely, and we moved the Annual General Meeting 2020 online as permitted under the COVID-19 (Temporary Measures) Act 2020. It was significant for us as it was an election year for the Association which required additional care in holding a virtual AGM. I am pleased to report that members rose to the occasion, quickly picked up skills on the procedures and format of online AGM. Our secretariat and the Executive Committee as well as members demonstrated resilience and adaptability in face of the new normal. The AGM was a success! A new Executive Committee was elected to see the Association forward for 2020 – 2022. Mr. Sam Kuna, SAC President (2016 – 2020) was conferred Fellow of the Association at the event.

The Association was not passively letting the pandemic impact us. SAC participated actively in supporting the Nation's effort in combating Covid-19, in particular the mental health concerns that followed the pandemic and the subsequent poor economic conditions. SAC was one of the key partners to the Ministry of Social & Family Development as they rolled out the National Care Hotline initiative in April. Our members responded keenly to our call for volunteers to help man the hotline. Our participation led to the Chinese Primetime News featuring one of our volunteers and SAC, a media exposure for an otherwise 'media-shy' professional organisation. In the region, SAC was also represented at a virtual regional forum on Counselling and COVID-19 in October organised by the National Population & Family Development Board, Malaysia.

In closing the year, the Association welcomed 241 new members, bringing the total in our fold to 1020 members as at 31 Dec 2020. Our Register of Counsellors also saw 41 more registrants. Six (6) new clinical supervisors made onto our Register of Clinical Supervisors as well.

On the financial front, the Association recorded a surplus of $68,738, which is 11.32% more than the previous year. Our accumulated fund grew by 21.53% to $387,926.

Our subcommittees kept up the vibrancy of the Association and followed EXCO's lead to move all activities online. New Members Orientation and Clinical Supervision were amongst other activities that took place during the year. Do read more about them in the pages of this report.

Within SAC, we started a small Public Education team who made interesting bite-size posters and interview clips focusing on various theoretical orientation on a quarterly basis. Separately, you must have also noticed that we are sending you festive greetings tailored made with SAC logo affixed. The public education posters, videos and our festive greetings are all available on our Facebook page!

I take this opportunity to thank the Ministry of Social & Family Development, the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Home Affairs, the National Council of Social Service, Singapore Association of Social Workers, and other stakeholders for their support rendered to SAC during the year, in our work of growing and shaping the counselling profession and landscape in Singapore.

It leaves me to thank the people who held the Association together. I thank the Chairpersons and member-volunteers of all Sub-Committees and Boards. Without you, the Association will not be functioning as well as it did, and it would have been a less vibrant year for us. We also thank Ms Sarah Phua from Genesis Consulting & Solutions and our staff Ms Sandra Lim for carrying out their roles dutifully and with pride. I thank my colleagues on the Executive Committee for sharing the leadership and serving our members in ways we know best. Special thanks to the newly formed public education team – Dr Joyce Chan, Ms Azlita Jaffar and Ms Lim Jia Yi.

To all members, Thank you for your participation and support at Association events and activities. As I always say, the Association can only be as strong as our members!

Yours truly,

COUNSELLORS EDUCATION BOARD – REPORT BY CHAIRPERSON, MS TRINA TAN

The word 'unprecedented' was named the People's Choice 2020 Word of the Year* with other words like 'pandemic' being closely connected to each of us in ways that was unimaginable before 2020. 2020 will be a year that the world will remember for many centuries to come. Similarly, for the Board, 2020 has been one-of-a-kind.

Due to circuit breaker, site visits to the institutes of higher learning offering counselling programmes recognised under SAC were suspended, thus stalling the renewal process. In the year under review, creativity and flexibility were the highlights of the day, to allow the Board and reviewers to complete the renewal of nine (9) programmes with one new application.

2020 was also a time where the world hit the 'pause' button and took stock of things and people that were important to them. In the same vein, the Board deliberated and proposed changes to EXCO for the Course Recognition Manual, in the spirit of ensuring the document remain dynamic in anticipating fluidity of training at least for the next five years.

I am truly grateful and amazed at the tenacity of the reviewers in finding ways to complete the work. I also thank the Board members – Hoi Ting, Carolyn, Andy, Hema, Irene; SAC EXCO and the Heads of the various institutes for being patient and generous and trusting in the process while working together. A special thanks to Sandra, our Secretariat, who has helped us manage this whole Board, keeping us on track.

We look forward to 2021, one where there will be more courses on board with SAC and one where we continue to grow as a counselling profession.

ETHICS BOARD – REPORT BY CHAIRPERSON, REV SAM KUNA

This report is of the work undertaken by members of the Ethics Board for the period July 2020 to March 2021.

The Ethics Board is honoured to be appointed to serve in this capacity over the two (2) years – 2020 to 2022. The Board being new, had only met once via Zoom to get acquainted with each other.

We familiarised ourselves with the 3 outstanding cases handed over by the previous Board but there has not been any further movement on those cases.

While we are aware that all Members are operating under different circumstances under the COVID-19 pandemic, and also using multiple technology-driven platforms to engage with their clients, we are thankful and happy to report that there were no new formal complaints filed during the entire 2020. There were several email queries and feedback from clients but none of them developed into formal complaints against our members.

Over the remaining time of our tenure, the current Ethics Board proposes to do the following:

1. Update the SAC Manual of Ethical Procedures (2015)

The Members of the Ethics Board are heartened that members are practising responsibly while experiencing the instability of the environment and attending closely to each of their clients. This will help greatly to uphold the competencies and professionalism of counselling practitioners in Singapore, especially in the eyes of the public.

The Ethics Board looks forward to receiving feedback and recommendations from any of our members regarding the current Code of Ethics and the Ethics Manual of Procedures. This will help us to keep currency and relevance when applying to the practice.

COMMUNITY COUNSELLORS SUB-COMMITTEE – REPORT BY CHAIRPERSON, MR JOACHIM LEE

We are a group of seasoned counsellors dedicated to promoting the community practice of counselling.

Our focus for this term is to create an affordable and accessible group supervision to members and at the same time to showcase the various supervisors' expertise. This will allow members to know who they can look for to engage in more in-depth supervision.

We facilitated the inaugural Group Supervision in November 2020. The participants came from various backgrounds/sectors – from social services, mental health institution, school, and private psychiatric clinic. Though diverse in background, the learnings were phenomenal. The participants took home a wealth of learnings and made new friends along the way.

We will be creating more opportunities for group supervision for the next two years and some short in-house therapeutic approaches in this coming term. Stay tuned.

Most SAC Membership Sub-Committee Team have known one another and worked behind the scenes for some five (5) years. We had great fun together with the diversity too!

Our main host Celine's COVID-19 ice-breaker activities were really exciting while co-host Rose's SAC's fun facts quiz warmed up the people online. Our SAC president Dr. Frederick Low did an inaugural address on "Counselling in such a time like this" during COVID-19 Circuit Breaker phase. Finally, the team also helped address the various challenges of new potential Counsellors in the Q&A segment. Thanks to Sam Roberts for availing his IT design skills to our e-poster event promotion too.

Throughout 2020, the team supported SAC Facebook with free online public education with Narrative Therapy Community of Practice between July-August, weekly IAGP Social Dreaming Matrix, Quarterly TSM (Therapeutic Spiral Model) International Gathering previews and annual IAGP Research Journal 2020 sharing.

The Committee was formed to formalise the Association's long-standing intent to support local research in counselling and psychotherapy. During the year under review, the committee conceptualised and put in action the plan to gather interests from authors keen to contribute to SAC's first academic publication. A Call for Abstract was sent out and a healthy response was received. ### 2.4 Property, plant and equipment

All items of property, plant and equipment are initially recorded at cost. Subsequent to recognition, property, plant and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. The cost of property, plant and equipment includes its purchase price and any costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Dismantlement, removal or restoration costs are included as part of the cost of property, plant and equipment if the obligation for dismantlement, removal or restoration is incurred as a consequence of acquiring or using the property, plant and equipment.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Depreciation is recognised from the date that the property, plant and equipment are installed and are ready for use, or in respect of internally constructed assets, from the date that the asset is completed and ready for use.

Assets below S$2,000	12 months
Assets above S$2,000	36 months

2.5 Financial instruments

a) Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are recognised when, and only when, the Association becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Association determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

When financial assets are recognised initially, they are measured at fair value, plus, in the case of financial assets not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

De-recognition

A financial asset is derecognised when the contractual right to receive cash flows from the asset has expired. On de-recognition of a financial asset in its entirety, the difference between the carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and any cumulative gain or loss that has been recognised in other comprehensive income is recognised in profit or loss.

b) Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are recognised when, and only when, the Association becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the financial instrument. The Association determines the classification of its financial liabilities at initial recognition.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value plus in the case of financial liabilities not at fair value through profit or loss, directly attributable transaction costs.

De-recognition

A financial liability is de-recognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a de-recognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability, and the difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognised in profit or loss.

2.6 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at banks and on hand and are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. These also include bank overdrafts that form an integral part of the Company's cash management.

2.7 Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Company has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and the amount of the obligation can be estimated reliably.

2.8 Government grants

Government grants are recognised when the grant is received and all attaching conditions are complied with.

2.9 Employee benefits

a) Defined contribution plans

The Association makes contributions to the Central Provident Fund scheme in Singapore, a defined contribution pension scheme. Contributions to defined contribution pension schemes are recognised as an expense in the period in which the related service is performed.

b) Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefit obligations are measured on an undiscounted basis and are expensed as the related service is provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid if the Association has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee, and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

2.10 Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured, regardless of when the payment is made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of consideration received or receivable, taking into account contractually defined terms of payment and excluding taxes or duty.

a) Rendering of services (Advertising & Course Recognition)

Revenue from rendering of services is recognised when the services have been confirmed or performed and rendered, and when there is transfer of significant risks and rewards of the services rendered to the customer. Revenue is not recognised to the extent where there are significant uncertainties regarding recovery of the consideration due, associated costs or the cancellation of services.

b) Membership subscriptions

Membership subscriptions are recognised upon the approval of membership subscriptions. Membership subscription fees are not recognised to the extent where there are significant uncertainties regarding recovery of the consideration due.

c) Member activities/projects

Income from member activities/projects are recognised at net of collections (if any), less direct expenses incurred on such activities/projects.

d) Interest income

Interest income is recognised on a time proportion basis using the effective interest method.

2.11 Taxes

a) Current income tax

Current income tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authority. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

3. Significant accounting judgments and estimates

The management is of the opinion that there are no significant judgments made in applying accounting estimates and policies that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year.

Credit risk refers to the risk that the counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in a loss to the Association. The Association's exposure to credit risk arises primarily from trade receivables.

The Association performs regular reviews of its aging trade receivables to manage its credit risk; any members who default on payments for more than 90 days are evaluated for recoverability and terminated if such defaults on payments persist.
