ABOUT SAC

The Singapore Association for Counselling (SAC) is the professional body representing counsellors, psychotherapists, counselling educators and students in Singapore. SAC has come a long way – pioneered in 1982 by Mr Anthony Yeo from Counselling and Care Centre together with a small group of counsellors.

Between 1996 – 1999, a Paper was developed by the EXCO to propose standards for the Recognition and Licensing of Professional Counsellors in Singapore. This Paper was presented to the then Ministry of Community Development (MCD) in 1999 but was rejected as the counsellor fraternity was considered too small.

In 1999, Constitutional amendments related to training standards for membership were approved by the Registry of Societies and implemented for new membership applications. Subsequently, SAC's first Code of Ethics was accepted at its Extraordinary General Meeting.

In the year 2000, SAC established new guidelines for the accreditation of counsellor training courses in Singapore to ensure clinical practice and supervision components were adequately in place.

SAC Register of Counsellors was established during its 20th Annual General Meeting in March 2003. The first SAC Website was launched. The SAC Constitution was amended for more clarity on its definition of a trained and qualified counsellor with emphasis on the details of training, practicum, and clinical supervision.

SAC partnered the Ministry of Community Development and Sports, and the National Council of Social Service (NCSS) to develop standard counselling courses. The First Joint Committee meeting involved SAC, NCSS, and SSTI. This was followed by MCYS, SASW and the NUS Social Work Department. The first Course Recognition Manual was launched in December 2005.

New Membership Categories were introduced, and the SAC Constitution went through a major review and update in 2013.

SAC became a full member of the National Council of Social Service (NCSS) since April 2015. In October 2015, SAC Ethics Manual of Procedures was launched by our Guest of Honour, Minister of State for the Ministry of Health, Dr Amy Khor at our inaugural Symposium attended by 500 delegates.

In 2016, SAC's Register of Clinical Supervisors was established during our 34th Annual General Meeting. The new Clinical Supervision Standards and Procedures document was approved. SAC also established a New Clinical Supervision Components and Standards for New Clinical Supervisor Applicants and was approved at the 35th AGM in 2017 to be in effect from June 2018.

On 03 November 2017, the new SAC Logo, Website, and Member Portal was launched by Mayor Denise Phua at the half-day 35th Anniversary Conference.

At the end of 2018, the EXCO decided to terminate the Secretariat services with the Singapore Professional Centre. From 01 January 2019, SAC started its own Secretariat services at Work Central Offices Pte Ltd with one full time staff, one part-time staff and Genesis Consulting as our financial services provider.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The 27th Executive Committee of the Singapore Association for Counselling (SAC) is pleased to present its Annual Report 2022. The year under review was a special one, it was the Association's Ruby Anniversary – 40th birthday! It was also a year where we see the world gradually opening up borders as we moved toward the endemic phase. In the following pages, you will read about how SAC continued to grow during the year and how we are engaging various stakeholders locally and globally.

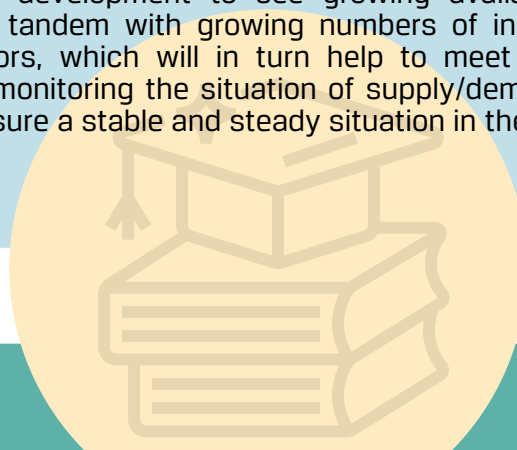

Our numbers

We are pleased to note that our membership remains stable. We counted 1451 members with us as we closed the year. Number of Registered Counsellors (RC) and Registered Clinical Supervisors (RCS) have grown in tandem to 472 (2021: 341) and 126 (2021: 106), recording an increase of 38% and 18% respectively.

Our financial reserves also continue its health growth along with membership. Fees collection such as advertisement and course recognition also contributed to this end. The Association recorded a surplus of $84,549 (2021: $92,262), which is 8.4% lesser than the previous year. The additional expenditure due to more events and activities during our anniversary year likely contributed to the slight reduction. Our total fund grew by over 17% from $480,188 to $564,737.

Advancing Counsellor Education

As observed in 2021, local interest in counsellor education and career intensified during the year under review. Our Counsellors' Education Board receive more applications from new courses for recognition. This naturally added workload to the Board who was already scheduled to handle renewal of several current recognised courses. It was however a healthy development to see growing availability of counsellor education programmes in tandem with growing numbers of individuals aspiring to be professional counsellors, which will in turn help to meet growing demands in various sectors. We are monitoring the situation of supply/demand and pipeline with other stakeholders to ensure a stable and steady situation in the coming years.

Serving our members

Thanks to volunteers on our three (3) subcommittees and the 40th Anniversary events organising committees, we held 13 member events throughout the year. These included new members' orientation, supervision groups, continual development workshops etc. Being our Ruby Anniversary, we held the record number of events, created over 3000 spaces for participation for our members. Despite still during the pandemic, we are pleased to share that a total of 1742 members participated in these events.

We want to register our appreciation to our members for their support. In the same breath, I also want to highlight these professional development and networking opportunities as a key benefit of being a member of the Association. Read more about our 40th Anniversary and these events in the following pages of this report.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Counselling & Psychotherapy Review Singapore

A milestone for the Association was reached during the year. Our first academic and practice journal - 'Counselling & Psychotherapy Review Singapore', was successfully published. We launched the publication at the 40th Anniversary dinner in November and all members will have online access in 2023. I thank members of the Research & Publication standing committee which also doubled up as the Editorial Board for all the hard work and persistence over the last two (2) years!

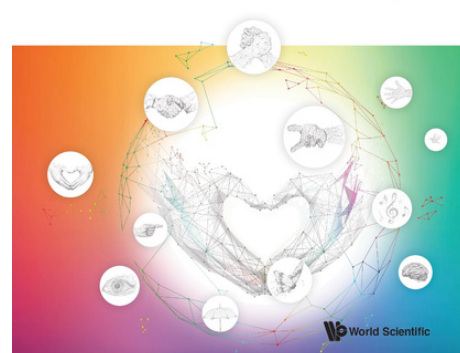

Growing our reach, regionally & globally

Part of the Association's strategic intentions is to develop closer links with our counterparts in the regions and beyond. To this end during the year, we accepted invitation to speak at several major international events. Starting with Canadian Counselling Association's Counselling Month event on 30 April 2022, followed by the National Conference of the Philippines Guidance and Counselling Association in May.

In the 2nd half of the year, we also spoke at the International Counselling Convention jointly organised by the International Association for Counselling and Malaysian Counselling Association (Perkama), a Singapore delegation led by SAC also participated in the convention. One of the milestones at the event was the agreement between professional counselling associations in Southeast Asia to start a network named "ASEAN Counselling Organisation Network" to foster closer collaborations and relation. SAC was a supporter of this initiative. As we closed the year, we also sent a delegation of three (3) speakers to participate in the 1st ASEAN Counsellor Conference in Manila, the Philippines.

Local Engagement and Mental Health

On home-ground, we continued the work with the MSF-lead workgroup alongside representatives from MOE, MOH, MHA, SSG etc. in designing the Skillsfuture Framework for counsellors.

During the year, we were engaging other stakeholders to support the development of counselling profession in Singapore. One example was our work with the Family Justice Courts under the Panel of Therapeutic Specialists Initiative, which was launched during the year. Another was our engagement with the Ministry of Manpower in Employee Assistance Programme. In the middle of the year, we also took lead with our colleagues at the Singapore Psychological Society to organise a focused group discussion for our members in response to the government's Mental Health Taskforce's consultation exercise.

Memorandum of Understanding on Panel of Therapeutic Specialists (POTS)

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our members recognised!

This year, we saw one of our members received a special award – the Skillfuture Fellowship Award. Mr Bernard Mackenzie has been a long-time member and contributor in the Association. Naturally, SAC supported and celebrates this achievement of his. Earlier in the year, another member - Ms Vickineswarie Jagadharan was recognised with the SG Heroine Award for her work as an advocate for suicide prevention and mental wellness. Examples of our members making strides and impact in our society demonstrate the ongoing collective impact the Association is making in the betterment of our communities.

Stakeholders & Partnership Appreciation

I take this opportunity to thank the MSF, MOE, MOH, FJC, NCSS, Association for Marital & Family Therapy (Singapore), Singapore Psychological Society, Care Corner Singapore, Counselling & Care Centre, James Cook University, and all other stakeholders for their support rendered to the Association during the year.

Secretariat and Administration

While we march forward in various aspects of Association's development and engagement, I am happy to report improvement in our administration as well. The year under review was also the first that our finances and accounts were audited by a Public Accountant. We have been returned with an unqualified opinion for our financial statements for the year.

We have grown our staff strength during the year under review. We now have two (2) full-time staff attending to members as well as the public. The growth in interests from the community translated to more inquiries and need for properly informing the public about counselling and about the Association. Growth in membership and the scale of Association's functions such as having a journal, more events, financial transactions etc added to our secretariat's workload. I am very grateful for Sandra Lim, our steadfast Assistant Manager for helming this team. I want to also thank other members of this team: Janice Choo and Wesley Lim who contributed much during the year under review. I must also thank Ms Sarah Phua and Ms Lee Pei Yee from Genesis Consulting & Solutions for carrying out their roles dutifully.

On behalf of all members, I want to thank the Chairpersons and member-volunteers of all Sub-Committees and Boards. I thank Mr Andy Lam, Hema Gurnani, and other colleagues on the 27th Executive Committee for their commitment and leadership.

SAC Member Appreciation

To all members, THANK YOU for your participation and support at Association events and activities. I encourage you to take time to read the pages of this annual report – be inspired by the passion of those who have made it possible for all the progress and events that have taken place this past year.

Mr Wong Teck Boon Anthony
Ms Yvonne Ang
Ms Agnes Chia* (SASW)

The Counsellors' Education Board (CEB) has had a busy and productive term in 2022. This is set to continue in 2023.

The CEB received three (3) renewal applications and five (5) new applications since the last Annual General Meeting. The CEB is currently still reviewing a total of five (5) pending applications.

The CEB also continued to note increasing interest from new course providers in Singapore as it provided two (2) formal consultations sessions and several email responses to queries.

There is a good balance of continuity and renewal. The CEB saw infusion of new members both in terms of chairmanship and board composition. New board members come from a diverse mix of professional experiences and contexts. The CEB is open to recruiting experienced practitioners to the Board and also as reviewers.

The CEB worked out a set of Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) about the course recognition scheme which will be uploaded to our website to complement the course recognition manual.

On behalf of the CEB, we would like to express our gratitude for the strong support of the Secretariat and guidance of the Executive Committee. The CEB would also like to thank Agnes Chia from Singapore Association of Social Workers for her valuable inputs as a Board member.

Members:

Mr Benny Bong

Ms Mittal Vinti

Ms Rose Apphia Rujiab Faquir

Dr Steven Tham

Mrs Toh-Chua Juliana Swee Lin

Dr Muni Winslow* (Psychiatrist)

Mr Robin Lim* (Lawyer)

This report is of the work undertaken by members of the Ethics Board for the period March 2022 to March 2023.

The Ethics Board is honoured to be appointed to serve in this capacity over the two (2) years – 2022 to 2024. We were happy to welcome Ms Sophia Ang as the Co-Chair of the Ethics Board and also welcomed two (2) new members into the Ethics Board – Ms Vinti Mittal and Ms Rose Faquir.

The Ethics Board is happy to report that there were no formal complaints filed against any SAC Members for the year 2022. There were a few complaints related to practitioners who were not SAC members, and thus the Ethics Board could not follow-up on those cases.

As mentioned in last year's report, the Ethics Board proceeded to spend most of the year updating the SAC Manual of Ethical Procedures (2015).

1. Each Member of the Board reviewed one Chapter of the Manual and made edits and proposed changes and improvements.
2. We then had several meetings via Zoom to discuss each Chapter in detail.
3. Our own internal lawyer, Mr Robin Lim, recommended another volunteer lawyer, Ms Stacey Teng, to vet, review, and organise the Manual so that it will have a better flow and easier to read.
4. Ms Stacey has done a wonderful job with the newly revised SAC Manual of Ethical Procedures and we look forward to presenting it to the EXCO and Members of SAC soon.

The Members of the Ethics Board continue to be heartened that SAC members are practising responsibly within their scope of practice as the Post-COVID environment has been "normalised" and clients are returning into sessions. New clients, couples and families who may have been impacted by the COVID experience are also beginning to seek help via counselling and psychotherapy. It is a good reminder to all SAC Members to practise within our competencies and refer clients who may have specific needs or conditions to other members who have the training and competencies.

As counselling and psychotherapy get increasing prominence in Singapore, and more SAC Members are seeking specialised training and certifications, it is an important ethical practice for members to receive adequate clinical supervision for the new skills and certifications that they have attained. This will protect clients from harm by the process of counselling and interventions! Even as new forms of therapy and interventions enter the practice environment, the Ethics Board looks forward to receiving feedback and recommendations from members on practices that may need some updates in the SAC Code of Ethics and the Ethics Manual of Procedures. This will help us stay current and relevant as we keep abreast of the evolving practice in the field of counselling and psychotherapy.

	Reviewed	Approved	Number of Meetings
Clinical Member + Registered Counsellor (New Applications)	114	94	8
Registered Counsellor (Renewals)	136	130

The Register of Counsellors Board (RCB) oversees the review of new and renewal applications of Registered Counsellors. The RCB's main aim is to ensure SAC maintains high professional standards among the counsellors in Singapore. In the year 2022, we notice a slight increase in the number of new applicants. In total, the RCB reviewed 114 new and 136 renewal applications.

The RCB met eight (8) times last year and in one of the meetings, the RCB had a good discussion with the representatives from the Ministry and Education (MOE) and the Ministry of Social & Family Development (MSF). During the meeting, we shared about the importance of getting our counsellors clinically recognised and how we can work together to maintain professional standards in this industry. The RCB is pleased to have Ms Malar Palaiyan, Lead Specialist, Guidance Branch, MOE and Ms Nancy Ng, Director, Family Support Division, MSF as the Ministry Representatives.

Moving forward, the RCB welcomes some new members in the team. The team is represented in most sectors in the counselling industry. The RCB will leverage on the collective wisdom of the team to review and recommend enhancements to the current registration scheme. On the operational front, the RCB will continue to streamline the processes for both new and renewal applications.

Lastly, I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation and gratitude to my team members for their contribution and support.

As Singapore was coming out of the Covid lockdowns, Community Counsellors Sub-Com seized the opportunity to conduct a face-to-face interactive training session by Dr Robert Rhoton, CEO of the Arizona Trauma Institute in July 2022. 76 Attendees came together for the interactive session at the James Cook University campus. Dr Rhoton spoke on how Trauma counselling should differ from normal counselling. As the members got to interact with each other after a long hiatus, the atmosphere was that of learning and confluence.

SAC40 Members Appreciation Dinner @ OCC

The year 2022 marked SAC's 40th Anniversary. MSC organised two significant in-person milestones events that strengthened the synergy of its new and existing members. SAC New Members Orientation was held on 27th August 2022 bringing new members and the Association altogether. SAC's 40th Anniversary Appreciation Dinner: 40 Years of Caring for the Nation, Building Communities of Carers was held on 25th November 2022. We celebrated this special occasion and appreciated both the members and the volunteers who contributed tirelessly to the Association. MSC thanks all our volunteer members who worked seamlessly together behind scenes with spontaneity and creativity, making a meaningful and fun connection for all. Looking forward, MSC purposed to serve members' needs towards personal and professional developments with better networking and engagement platform opportunities for us all.

The year under review was one filled with actions and excitement in this committee. Following the Executive Committee's approval and subsequent appointment of World Scientific as our publisher, our journal titled Counselling & Psychotherapy Review Singapore became a reality as the months rolled by. Our publisher set up our online presence as papers started to populate after the peer-reviewed process. By December, the inaugural issue came online and the journal was launched at our 40th Anniversary dinner by Mr. Eric Chua, Senior Parliamentary Secretary for the Ministry of Social & Family Development and Ministry of Culture, Community & Youth. After attaining this milestone and the formation of an Editorial Board for the journal, the standing committee will be formalised as a sub-committee to progress into the next phase of work - to promote research among our members in the Association.

With the uplifting of restrictions surrounding COVID-19, the School and College Counsellors Sub-Committee (SCCSC) members were reinvigorated to organise events for fellow peers within the community. In 2022, the chair of the sub-committee, Ms Shamini Ras Ramachandran, facilitated a talk by Ms. Michelle Koay on Impact of Trauma on Children and Adolescents specifically organised for school & college counsellors.

As the talk received positive feedback and recognising the learning need in the area of trauma, this topic will be one of the focal points in the planning of talk/s for fellow practitioners in 2023.

The Counselling Journey - "Where Do I Fit In?" (27 May 2022)

The talk by Rev Sam Kuna on "The Counselling Journey - Where do I fit in?" saw a total of 207 attendees from various groups. These attendees ranged from counsellors-in-training to beginner practitioners and experienced practitioners/psychotherapists.

Rev Sam Kuna, with his over 35 years of experience, shared insights into the development of a counsellor/psychotherapist and introduced the six stages in this journey. He highlighted the challenges and rewards that come with each stage and encouraged attendees to embrace their unique journey in this profession. The talk was informative, inspiring, and engaging, with attendees leaving with a greater understanding of the counselling journey and where they fit in. It was an excellent opportunity for those interested in pursuing a career in counselling/psychotherapy or those already in the field to gain valuable insights from an experienced practitioner.

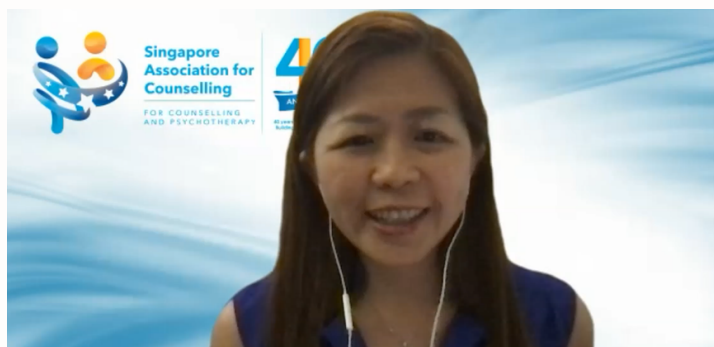

Motivational Interviewing (24 June 2022)

Mr Viknesan's session on Motivational Interviewing had over 300 attendees learning about this approach. Motivational Interviewing is a strength-based, non-judgmental, goal-oriented, client-centred approach that facilitates positive behavioural change. Attendees learned about effective communication, empathy, and collaboration, and how to use reflective listening and open-ended questions to explore clients' motivations and goals. The session was a valuable learning opportunity for healthcare professionals, social workers, and counsellors, and we look forward to more informative sessions in the future.

The Art of Vitalising Self Care (22 July 2022)

As professionals whose art and core focus is to support and enhance the psychological and emotional well-being of individuals, it is imperative for us to engage in everyday micro moments of self-nourishment. Self-care helps to enhance our innate resilience and the practice also provides a protective layer of inner strength against life and professional challenges. Over 140 participants learned more about Suzy Reading's Vitality Wheel and useful self-care techniques from the insightful sharing by Ms Rena Sivadas.

The Trauma Impact of COVID-19 on Children and Adolescents (19 Aug 2022)

Due to the pandemic, mental health professionals observed that children and adolescents exhibit PTSD-like symptoms which resulted in a range of mental health-related issues. Over 100 participants attended the presentation by Ms Michelle Koay where she explored how counsellors can support young people to process their experiences and to gain a more constructive and positive meaning of what they have gone through.

Trauma Counselling vs Normal Counselling by Dr Robert Rhoton

The Community Counsellors Sub-Committee organised a complimentary SAC40 celebration event exclusively for SAC members on 25 July 2022. The event featured a talk by Dr Robert Rhoton on Trauma Counselling vs Normal Counselling, and over 70 members attended.

Dr Rhoton's presentation provided attendees with insights into trauma-informed principles and techniques, and highlighted the differences between trauma counselling and normal counselling. This event was an excellent opportunity for SAC members to learn about trauma counselling and to gain new insights into trauma-informed principles and techniques. Attendees learned about the importance of understanding trauma, its effects on individuals and communities, and how to provide effective care and support for those who have experienced trauma.

The event was made possible by the hard work of the Community Counsellors Sub-Committee and support from partners like James Cook University Singapore and Eagles Mediation & Counselling Centre Ltd. Their contributions were greatly appreciated, and their support helped to bring this event to fruition and provided attendees with valuable opportunities to learn and network. We would also like to thank the enthusiastic participation of SAC members.

SAC 40th Anniversary Symposium

The theme of the SAC Symposium 2022, "40 Years of Caring for the Nation, Building Communities of Carers" is a timely and relevant topic, given the current challenges faced by communities worldwide. The symposium provided a platform for professionals and caregivers to share their experiences, learn from each other, and build networks. The keynote address by Dr Lee Boon Ooi, along with the presentations by Dr Jessica Leong and Ms Ruth Chua, provided attendees with valuable insights into the importance of community building and the role of caregivers in promoting the well-being of individuals and communities.

The two breakout room sessions, with their respective topic tracks, offered attendees a chance to participate in interactive workshops and delve deeper into specific topics as well as connect with like-minded professionals.

- Track 1, which focused on trends and approaches in working with children, youths, and families in Singapore, were led by Dr Ruchi Goyal and Mr Benny Bong. This workshop was relevant for individuals who work in education, social services, or community development.
- Track 2, which focused on working with diverse populations and cultures, were led by Ms Adelyn Teo, Ms Rita Richard, and Dr Timothy Hsi. This workshop was especially useful for those who work in healthcare, social services, or other fields that involve working with diverse populations.

Overall, the SAC Symposium 2022 symbolised a steadfast attitude towards the profession and brought about a collaborative dialogue on topics that matter to us.

SAC 40th Anniversary Dinner

The grand finale event was held on 25 Nov 2022 at Orchid Country Club and graced by Mr. Eric Chua, Senior Parliamentary Secretary for the Ministry of Social & Family Development and Ministry of Culture, Community & Youth, who joined us as Guest of Honour. His presence added a special touch to the event and we are grateful for his support.

The dinner proved to be a wonderful opportunity for us to express our deepest appreciation to our members and volunteers for their valuable contributions throughout the years. We could not have achieved this milestone without their hard work and dedication.

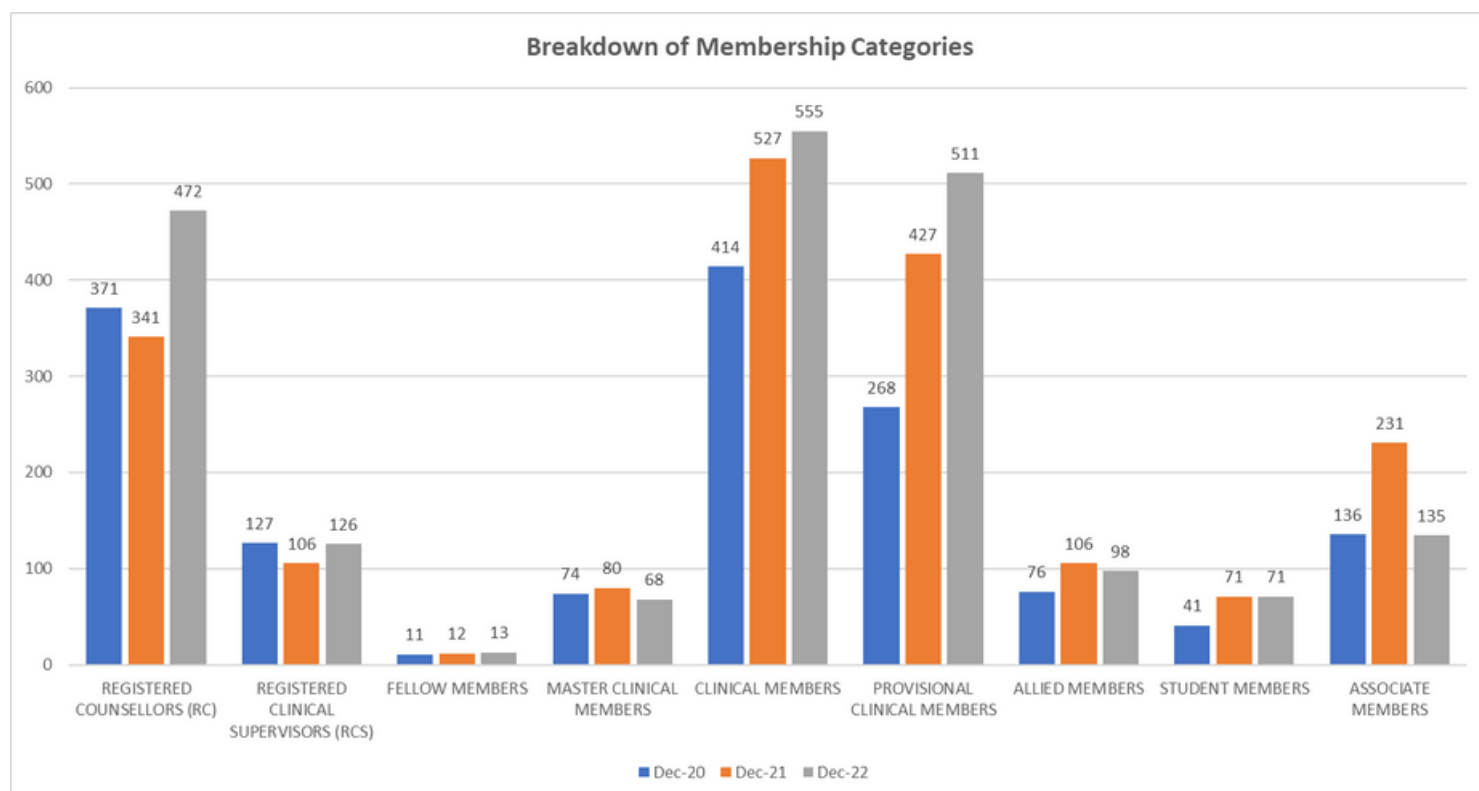

We are proud of our Association's accomplishments over the past 40 years and look forward to many more years of serving our community together. Thank you for your continued support and we hope to see you at our future events.
